ORDER:

The Secretary, MANASA non-profit voluntary organization for the welfare of mentally handicapped, Hyderabad have submitted representation vide reference 1st read above to the Government that, it is a non profit registered society devoted to the cause of education for the mentally challenged children and it is founded in 1991 by women lecturers of RBVRR College, Narayanaguda, Hyderabad. The institution is run on the donations raised by members of the society and it is running the school for more than 19 years. The school admits children of different levels of mental retardation and takes care to provide the services of specially trained teachers for their education. MANASA Society further represented that, Government recently made available about 963 sq. yds of land at Kothapet, R.R. Dist at nominal cost to build permanent building for the school which has been functioning in a rented building all these days. The building plans were approved by the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, Hyderabad for proposed construction of new building for the school and Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, Hyderabad issued notice dt: 13.04.2010 for payment of Rs. 7,74,230/- towards development charges and other fees. The Secretary, Manasa Society has therefore requested the Government to kindly waive the fees for Rs. 7,74,230/- for construction of school building since their organization is charitable in nature and non profit society.

2. The Commissioner, Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, Hyderabad has stated that, Manasa Society has submitted the proposals for construction of Home for Mentally Retarded School building consisting of Stilt + 4 upper floors on Sy. No.135, Kothapet, Uppal (M), L.B. Nagar in the name of Secretary, Manasa Society. Since it is devoted to the cause of education for mentally challenged children, the Government has allotted the land to the society at a nominal cost of Rs. 800/- sq. yd. The request of the society for exemption of fee / charges merits favourable consideration. However, present schedule of rates for fee / charges has no such provision for exemption.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter and the report submitted by the Commissioner, Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, Hyderabad hereby exempt the fees and charges totaling Rs. 7,74,230 (Rupees seven lakhs seventy four thousand two hundred and thirty only) for the proposed Construction of Home for Mentally Retarded School building with Stilt + 4 upper floors in Sy. No.135, Kothapet, Uppal (M) L.B. Nagar, Hyderabad submitted by M/s Manasa Society since the organization is charitable in nature and non - profit society working for the mentally challenged children.
